The Court recently directed the parties to confer about agreeing to a modified scheduling order rather than briefing Defendants' motions to exclude

Plaintiffs' experts for being untimely disclosed. The parties have agreed on the following modified scheduling order, which the Court approves:

1. Defendants will have until September 21, 2017, to identify rebuttal experts, if any.
2. Defendants must produce any rebuttal expert reports by October 6, 2017.
3. The parties must complete all expert depositions by November 20, 2017.
4. The parties must contact the court by November 22, 2017, to request a conference to discuss summary judgment motions.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 10th day of August, 2017.
